Your invitation to a one-to-one “at retirement” session

We see that you’re coming up for retirement!

Whilst this is an exciting time for you, it is also a time of big change and there are some important decisions you need to make about your pension and finances which will affect the rest of your life.

To help you with those decisions, we’d like to invite you to attend a one-to-one “at retirement” session. This session is free of charge and will last about one hour. You will need to do some preparation for the session (we’ll send you a booklet to read and complete) which, combined with the session itself, will help you to:

- Understand your options
- Ensure you have the information you need
- Feel confident in making good decisions for your retirement

To arrange your one-to-one session, or for more information, contact Catherine – a consultant at First Actuarial using the email address below and a member of the team will be in touch to arrange a suitable time to speak with you:

RSVP: unilever121@firstactuarial.co.uk

First Actuarial are a firm of independent pension experts. Whilst they will not be providing you with specific individual advice, they will be able to provide you with support in relation to your retirement options and help you feel able to make good decisions.
